

Private Lessons

As students of yours, we want to thank you so much for your time and effort in coordinating our wedding dance. We had some struggles during practices, but it was all worth it in the end...We got a standing ovation and many compliments all evening. To this day, as we attend other weddings, we feel so much more comfortable on the dance floor thanks to you.

Q: We have our wedding song picked out already...can we keep it?

A: Yes! I choreograph a routine specifically for your special song.

Q: Is it necessary to have previous experience with ballroom dance before taking private lessons?

A: No, it is not necessary. However, if you take group instruction first, you will need fewer private lessons. Plan ahead!

Q: What is the cost of a private lesson?

A: Private lessons usually cost $50/hour.

Q: What is the cost for students?

A: For those already attending classes, the cost is $35/hour.

Q: Can my entire wedding party take lessons?

A: By all means...I can work out a special group rate.
